MEDICINAL.

In military prisons an offender is sometimes sentenced to carry cannon balls from one place to another and pile them up all day long. That is all. Perhaps it does not seem very terrible but it soon wears his strength down. It is practically a death sentence. When a man feels the same way about his health, it is because he is suffering from a disease that is wearing him down from day to day. He would like to be thrown with a mortal disease. It is a shame that a man of later years should be dragged out by his suffering and liver complaint. The only way to get rid of it is to use Dr. J. C. Slaymaker's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a powerful purgative and builds up sound, whole, healthy flesh and muscle.

INSANE GUARD OVER STARVING HUSBAND.

When the police, in response to entreaties of neighbors, and heedful of the ominous sounds from within, yesterday broke into the rooms occupied by John Hotchkiss and his wife at No. 85 Market street, they stumbled upon two cases of suffering rare even upon their books. A woman, with the light of insanity in her eyes, crouched beside a pallet of straw upon which was stretched the emaciated form of her husband. She was crooning a love song of her childhood days. He, in a voice so weakened by hunger and disease that it scarce was raised above a whisper, was imploring her to seek aid for herself.

A search was made of the two rooms, but not so much as a crust of bread was found. There had been nothing to eat there for three days, since the woman in her insane fear had locked and barred the doors on the inside.

Hotchkiss, nearly dead when alive, was hurried to Government Hospital. The physicians said that he was in the last stages of consumption. His wife was taken to Bellevue Hospital and then placed in the insane pavilion. Dr. Robinson said she had probably been out of her mind for several days. Tuesday night she was raving to be allowed to go to her husband, while he in turn called for her to come to his bedside.

Hotchkiss has been ill for a long time. The family fortunes reached low ebb, and the woman's mind began to go, and, thinking that the sick man would be thrown into the street, she shut herself in with him. The landlady reported the matter to Miss Fiske, a University Settlement worker, who tried to get into the apartment, but the woman thought it a trick and refused to withdraw the bolt.

Into the hallway floated the muffled sound of the woman's voice as she creased her husband with it, and then incoherent words as her mind wandered to other things.

Neighbors and Miss Fiske went to the police and a warrant was sworn out. The door had finally to be broken down. The woman fought with them, they would remove her husband, but she was so weak that she could do but little.

Physicians said Tuesday night that absolute want was to a great extent responsible for the distress of both. [New York Herald.]

CURE FOR EPILEPSY. New honor has just been brought to the medical faculty of the University of Michigan, by the results of the research of Dr. G. Carl Huber.

MEDICINAL.

Did you ever see a snow storm in summer? We never did; but we have seen the clothing at this time of the year so covered with dandruff that it looked as if it had been out in a regular snow storm. No need of this snowstorm. As the summer sun would melt the falling snow so will melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than that; it prevents their formation. It has all other properties; it will restore color to gray hair in just ten times out of every ten cases. And it does even more; it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.

We have a book on the Hair and Scalp. It is yours, for the asking. If you do not obtain all the benefits you expect from the use of the Vigor, write the doctor about it. Probably there is some difficulty with your general system which may be easily remedied. Address: Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

Spreads Like Wildfire. You can't keep a good thing down. News of it travels fast. When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Bellevue, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have ever handled in my 29 years experience." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitude of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Only 50 cts. Sold by E. L. Allen & E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, guaranteed.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, grippe, sore throat, coughs, colic, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute" will "answer the purpose" or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Insist vigorously upon having "something else" is offered you. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of cures of colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects; and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it cures that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King St.

Happy is the man or woman who can eat a good hearty meal without suffering afterward. If you cannot do it, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and cures all forms of Dyspepsia and Indigestion. Edgar Warfield, Jr., corner King and Pitt streets.
